INDEX TO VOLUME XXVIII.

Awful Grasp upon the Future of the Child, 122.

About the Stars: Children Should Know Them, 304.

A Great Inventor; Sketch of Robert Fulton, 44.

An Educational Critique—W. T. Seal, 196.

Are There Too Many Studies?—W. A. Hipple, 321.

Articulate; as Applied to Sounds—J. H. Hoose, 48.

A Story and a Sequel, 134.

Astronomy, How to Present the Subject, 436.

A Warning: Scattering Tares in School-Room, 125.

Bad Boys, Special Schools for them: Feasible Plan—H. S. Tarbell, 265.

Beauty in School-Room: Nature and Spirit—A. D. Mayo, 304.

Blackboards in Recitation: Their Use in All Studies—B. C. Jillson, 34.

Botany in Common Schools—H. S. Baker, 301.

Children's Rights, A Plea for Childhood, 40.

Commencement in More Ways than One, 45.

CONVENTION OF COUNTY, CITY AND BOROUGH SUPERINTENDENTS—Teachers' Examinations, Jas. M. Caughlin, 461—County Institutes, W. W. Woodruff, 463—New Legislation Required, B. F. Shaub, 469—Free School Books, B. F. Patterson, 470—High Schools, Geo. J. Luckey, 473—City Institutes, W. H. Shelley, 475—Graded Schools in the Country, Jesse Newlin, 479—Course of Study for Ungraded Schools, S. B. Shearer, 480—Local Institutes, James Dickson, 482—Remarks of Gov. Hoyt and Lt. Gov. Stone, 485—Examinations at Close of Term, D. S. Keith, 485—Periodical Reviews during Term, J. O. Knauss, 487—Duty of Superintendents as to Methods of Teaching Each Branch of Study, A. D. Glenn, 489—What Can Superintendents Do to Improve Public Sentiment as to Schools? S. H. Prather 491—Exhibition of Scholars' Work, A. J. Davis, 494—Teachers' Certificates, H. S. Jones, 496—Relation of Normal School Graduates to Profession, Miss H. E. Brooks, 498—Course of Study for City Schools, V. G. Curtis, 501—Transfers and Promotions, W. W. Cottingham, 503—The Quincy Methods, B. G. Ames, 506—School Visitation, Geo. W. Ryan, 508—District Supervision, R. F. Hoffecker, 509—Strength and Weakness of the School Directorship, M. C. Horine, 511—Literary Societies in Connection with Common Schools, T. F. Gahan, 512—Resolutions of Respect to Prof. F. A. Allen. 514—List of Members, 516.

Destitute Children, 227.

Dignity of Skilled Labor, 195.

Drawing, Advantages of, Educational, Industrial—J. V. Montgomery, 130.

Each and All (Poem)—R. W. Emerson, 170.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

July—National Educational Association in Philadelphia, 18. Pardee Hall, Asa Packer, 20. Professional Teachers Only, 23. School of Design for Women, 23. Teaching a Profession, 25. An Indian under School Discipline, 25. Going to Work, 26. August—Science and Art of Teaching at Michigan University, 49. Changes in Text Books, 50. Normal Schools vs. Academies, 52. Pictures in School-room, 51. Teachers for Military Posts, 52. School Boards vs. Councils: Governor's Veto, 53. High Schools: Significant Statistics, 53. A Show from Japan, 54. Indian Scholars at Hampton, 54. New York Normal Schools, 57. October—Five Hundred Pages, 143. Pardee Hall, 144. Work of Bureau of Education, 144. Revising the Salaries, 149. Opening the Schools, 150. Efforts to Obtain Attendance—First Day at School—School Board Wisdom, 153. November—Teaching Reading, 193. Dignity of Skilled Labor, 195. Shenandoah Schools, 194. Farmers' Wives in Iowa, 195. An Educational Critique, 196. December—Study Out of School, 235. Clearfield to the Front, 236. Wilmington Training School, 237. Quincy Schools, 238. Whispering in School, 239. A Pennsylvania Institute, 240. January—Progress in France, 271. Shearing the Lambs, 272. Permanent Teachers—"New Departure" at Quincy, 274. Honor to an American Girl, 276. Words of Encouragement, 276. Indian School at Carlisle, 277. Reception of Gen. Grant by Philadelphia Schools, 278. February—Department of Superintendence, Educational Congress, 323. School Facilities for Factory Children, 325. Education in Philadelphia, 326. What Shall be Done with the Indians? 327. Work in the West, 329. March—State Association, 370. Japan, 371. Brazil, 372. Department of Superintendence, 372. Reform Schools. 374. A Quincy in Pennsylvania, 374. Industrial Training, 375. Agricultural Education, 376. Obituary: F. A. Allen, N. L. Dykeman, 377. April—Mother-Tongue, 410. Education in France, 410. School Warrants, 411. Individual Instruction, 412. New Code of Education in Japan, 413. Supt. Parker and His Work, 413. School Text-Books, 414. Licensing Teachers, 415. The Negro in the South and His Education, 415. Teaching Language to Children, 416. May—Sewing in Schools—Illiteracy in Switzerland—School Examination, 438. What was Learned at Qnincy, 439. Another School Sensation in Massachusetts—Preparing Lessons out of School, 440. Educational Congress at Rome, 441. Education and Crime: Story Told by our Penal Institutions, 442. Swiss Teachers' Association. 444. Science in West Chester, 445. June—Convention of Superintendents, 459.

Education and Crime, 136, 442.

Education at Home and Abroad—J. T. Philbrick, 82.

Education in Germany: Surprising Statistics, 427.

Efforts to Secure Attendance, 151.

Elementary Schools: Relation of Kindergarten to the School, Wm. T. Harris—Graduated System for Country Schools, A. L. Wade—First School Days, R. D. Rickoff—Drawing in Schools, 101.

Errata: Illusions of History, T. J. Chapman, 216.

Evil Communications: Guard Your Children. 367.

Examination Questions: Two Days' Work at Millersville, 37.

Extracts and Selections: Paragraphic, 357, 501.

Farmers' Wives in Iowa, 195.

Federal Government in Education, Role of—R. K. Buehrle, 345.

First Days of School: Training in School Ways, 139.

Following a Good Example: Self-Culture, 43.

Foreign vs. American: Status of the Teacher, 226.

Forest Leaves: Nature's Wealth of Resources, 215.

Fruits of State Education—M. A. Newell, 223.

Gœthe, Child-Life of: Biographical Sketch, 127.

Going to School: Education on the Practical Side, 46.

Good Reading: Cultivate Ability to Read Well, 214.

Higher Education: College Dormitores, Charles K. Adams—Orthography in High Schools and Colleges, F. A. March, 99.

High School and Its Benign Influence, 33.

High School Question: Province of High Schools—J. W. Dickinson, 74.

Home Training, 405.

How Teachers Should Deal with Indolent Pupils, 3.

How to Have a Bad School: Infallible Rules, 317.

Imagination: Culture in the Schools—T. Hill, 176.

Indian School at Carlisle, 277, at Hampton, 54.

Industrial Education: Mechanic Arts, 263.

Industrial Education in Europe: Agriculture in the Public Schools and Higher Institutions, 161.

Industrial Training: Beginning of Industrial Education, M. A. Newell, 105—Modeling in Clay, 107.

Insect Lives: How to Instruct Young People, 364.

Institute Work, Outline of: For Use of Institute Instructors in Michigan, 184.

Intellectual Unfortunates: Medical Inspection, 189.

Invisible Forces—J. H. Shumaker, 267.

John Bright on Education: Elementary Schools, 313.

John Pounds: The Man and His Work, 176.

Jones's Dream: He Examines the Books, 408.

Juvenile Training—Grace Morrow, 430.

Kindergarten and Common Schools—Lelia E. Patridge, 253.

Language Lessons: What is Meant by Them, 259.

Licensing Teachers, 415.

Little Ones: Practical Hints in Reading, 130.

Manual Training School at St. Louis: New Movement in the West—Origin and Purpose of the School—Course of Study, etc., 389.

Maple Leaf, Outline of Object Lesson, 126.
Methods of Expressing Thought—L. M. Haupt, 251.
Microscope, Work for the Instrument, 362.
Miscellany: Personals, 201, 245, 285, 337, 384, 454. 384, 454.
Mistakes in School Management—James Hughes, 217.
Music, Influence of—L. J. Reilly, 431.
MUSIC PAGES—Kindred Hearts, 32; Jesus, Lover of My Soul, 64; Come, Holy Spirit, 64; Twilight is Falling, 116; The Lord's Prayer, 116; Wake, Wake the Morning, 160; A Grand Old Song, 160; Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah, 204; Flag of the Free, 204; Come, All Ye Faithful, 250; The Farmer, 250; Geography Song, 288; Forever and Forever, 288; Sparkting and Bright, 342; Old Hundred, 342; The Old Cottage Clock, 388; Up the Hills, 388; Polish May Song, 426; Father, Whate'er of Earthly Bliss, 426; Rose of Allandale, 456; God Bless Our Native Land, 456;
NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION: Proceedings of Eighteenth Session, 65. Inaugural Address: Past and Present of Association—John Hancock, 69. High School Question: Province of High Schools—J. W. Dickinson, 74. The Neighborhood a Starting-Point in Education—R. E. Thompson, 75. Re-adjustment of Common-School Studies Necessary—A. J. Rickoff, 80. Education at Home and Abroad—John T. Philbrick, 82. The New Teacher in New America—A. D. Mayo, 83. Reception in Permanent Exhibition Building, 94. Department of Normal Schools—Opposition to Normal Schools, W. F. Phillips—Professional Degrees for Teachers—Professional Education, 95. Department of Higher Education—College Dormitories, Charles K. Adams—Orthography in High Schools and Colleges, F. A. March, 99. Department of Elementary Schools—Relation of Kindergarten to the School, Wm. T. Harris—Graduated System for Country Schools, A. L. Wade—First School Days, Mrs. R. D. Rickoff—Drawing in Schools, 101. Department of Industrial Training—The Beginning of Industrial Education, M. A. Newell—Modeling in Clay, Edw. A. Spring, 105. Department Spelling Reform—Present of Spelling Reform in America, F. A. March—Spelling Reform in England—Reform in Journalism, 108. Editorial Opinions, 111. Members from Pennsylvania, 115.
Nature, Interpretation of: "Solar Force, a Great Parable of Nature"—John Dyer, 5.
Neighborhood: a Starting-Point in Education, 75.
New Teacher, in New America—A. D. Mayo, 83.
Noble Conduct, 175.
Normal Schools, Opposition to—Degrees, etc., 95.
Normal Schools: Results—Mary Allen West, 122.
Normal Schools: Views of Practical Teacher, 349.
"Nothing but Boys": Give Them a Chance, 183.
Obstacles to Progress—Henry Houck, 308.
OFFICIAL DEPARTMENT—To Superintendents—Important to School Boards—Orphan Schools—Superintendents Commissioned, Permanent Certificates, 30. Reading Superintendency: Official Opinion, 61. Circular to Normal Schools, Balance of Appropriation, 1878, Appropriation, 1879, Orphan Schools, County Institutes, 157. State Appropriation, School Examination, County Institutes, 248; Convention of Superintendents, Free Text-Books, Soldiers' Orphan Schools, Payment of Appropriation, etc., 334; Changes in Course of Study at Normal Schools, Opposition of Parents, Appropriation, 382; Convention of Superintendents: Programme of Business, 421; Digest of School Laws, Writ of Mandamus to State Officers. Report of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Authority to Direct Studies, 449.
Opening Schools after Vacation, 150.
Opposite Examples: Thoughts for Young Men—Horace Mann, 175.
Oral Teaching vs. Text-Book Recitation, 142.
Our Debt to the Greek—T. J. Chapman, 11.
Our Wondrous Atmosphere: Facts for the School-Room, 141.
OVER THE SEA—Editorial Correspondence: More of Switzerland, 26, 58; Tete Noire, Chamouny, Geneva, 154; On the Way to Rome, 196; Rome, 241; Ruins and Museums of Rome, 281; The Vatican and the Churches, 329; Florence, 378; Venice, 417; Verona, Milan, Como, etc., 445.
Parents and Common Schools—A. D. Mayo, 268.
Pestalozzi at Stanz: Work of a True Teacher, 313.
Philadelphia: High School Boys' Excursion, 14.
Procrastination (Poem)—Edward Young, 171.
Professional Work in Ontario Normal Schools, 318.
Public Schools of Vienna, Austria—T. B. Noss, 343.
Quincy Schools, Morning in: Taking Averages—Orthography Made Easy—Geography, etc., 166—Critical Reading Lesson—History by Construction—Language Lessons, etc., 205.
Re-adjustment of Common School Studies, 80.
Recollections of Prof. Allen—Wm. F. Hughes, 400.
Recreation of Teachers—Rev. Geo. P. Hays, 258.
Relation of Parents to Schools: Neglect of Duty, 319.
Report of Superintendent of Public Instructton, 451.
Rotundity of the Earth: Familiar Proofs, 141.
Salt Mines of Europe: In England, etc., 137.
School Board Wisdom, 153.
School of Design for Women, 23.
Schools, Past, Present and Future—H. M. Engle, 316.
School House, The: "The Law was our School-Master"—David Swing, 360.
School-Room Work: Theory and Principles, 406.
School Text-Books: Their Use and Abuse, 414.
Science in West Chester: Flourishing Societies, 444.
Scientific Notes, 203, 247, 286, 338, 385, 424.
Secondary Education in Paris—J. E. Bradley, 308.
Selecting a School: Parents and Guardians, 140.
Service, the Best: "Duty Nearest Thee," 353.
She Being Dead Yet Speaketh: Consecrated Life—M. A. Warren, 133.
Social Science Association at Saratoga: Individuality of Teachers—Examining Work of Pupils—Women Voting in School Elections, etc., 179.
Southern Heavens: "The Cross Begins to Bend"—Von Humboldt, 214.
Spelling Match, the, 230.
Spelling Reform in America—F. A. March, 108.
STARS AND STAR GROUPS—Opening Lectures of Winter Course, Solar and Stellar Systems, Solar System in Miniature, J. P. McCaskey, 172; Circumpolar Constellations, Distances of Stars, Color, Multiple Stars, Circle of Zodiac, etc., J. P. McCaskey, 209; One Hundred and thirty Stars With Names Accented, Immovable Boundary Stones, Working Hints, Mythology, Constellations Visible Each Month, Star Clubs for Star Study, Diagrams, and Lines of Direction and Distance, 289.
Status of Teacher: Permanent Certificates, 355.
Strait Jackets—W. A. Beer, 123.
Study a Child's Capacities: School Incidents, 404.
Superintendents and Teachers—J. L. Packard, 250.
Swiss Teachers' Association, 444.
Sympathy: Brief Sketch from Experience, 437.
Talks with My Boys: Concentration of Thought—Wm. A. Mowry, 366.
Teaching, a Trade: Facilities of the Senses, 35.
Teaching in Nebraska: School Work in West, 429.
Technical Training for Women—H. M. Shepard, 229.
The Air and Sea: Chief Agencies in Nature's Workshop—M. F. Maury, 170.
"The Child Grew:" Inevitable Law of Being, 134.
The First Japanese Lecture: An Interpreter, 47.
The Old Man Goes to School (Verses), 42.
The Real School: Slate Drawing, Picture Making, etc.—R. A. Rickoff, 368.
The Teacher, a Groove-Runner: Useless Stupidity—B. F. Taylor, 369.
The Teacher, the Text-Book—L. F. Darlington, 397.
The Wondrous Book: "Times and Changes," 231.
Thoughts for Thoughtful: Paragraphic Variety, 401.
"Too Rich to Afford It:" Story with a Moral, 13.
Technical Training for Women. 229.
Training School, Wilmington, Delaware, 237.
Vanity in Modern School Architecture, 405.
Visit to England: Experience in Teaching. 350.
Voice from the Pupil's Corner: Some Points Reviewed, 393.
Wellesley University for Women: Plans and Purposes of a Great Benefaction—Model College Buildings—Woman's Higher Education, 297.
Western School Mistress: Sketch from Real Life, 220.
What Europe is Doing in Education, 37.
What it Will Do: "Love of a Worthy Object," 124.
Whispering in School: Views of B. G. Ames and Maria L. Sanford, 239.
Woman's Conclusions (Poem)—Alice Cary, 207.
Wonderful History of a School District, 117.
Yellowstone National Park: Wonders of Region, 306.
Yosemite Valley—Samuel Bowles, 212.
Yung Wing: Results of a Devoted Life, 41.